THE CRIME FICTION MAGAZINE INDEX

CRIME, MYSTERY, DETECTIVE, AND ESPIONAGE MAGAZINES
[1915–2004]

by STEPHEN T. MILLER and WILLIAM G. CONTENTO

Here is a bird's-eye view of this mammoth undertaking:

This is the most comprehensive index ever published of contributions to magazines in the field of Crime, Mystery, Detective, and Espionage Magazines. The baseline Table of Contents Index has been compiled alphabetically and chronologically for Mystery, Detective and Espionage Fiction, 2 Volumes (1988) by Cook and Miller; Monthly Murders (1982) by Michael Cook; and up to date data from additional periodical publications compiled by Bill Contento.

- * Over 480 different publications are represented with chronological name changes, mergers and revivals.
- * [Magazine not found] entries are at a minimum and a Want List of missing data is available upon request.
- * The Title Index and The Author Index will be generated only after The Table of Contents Index is completed.
- * The Series Character Index has been compiled by familiarity with the stories listed sequentially in The Table of Contents Index. Suggestions for improvements and additions are most welcome.
- * Each volume measures 8.5" x 11" and is red, white or blue buckram with gold leaf lettering
- * Each page is double- or triple-columned and highly readable
