= H-106	Caird, Janet	Perturbing Spirit	[1968]

In 1969 Ace went to a new system where book numbers were assigned by a book's relative position alphabetically over a 100,000 number range, with the numbers on later printings being raised (sometimes lowered) by 1. Books in print at the time were assigned numbers for catalog and ordering purposes that never actually appeared on the books. Ace rarely put printing dates in their books, making it impossible to order this listing chronologically.
